IT'S HAPPY FACE TIME

The annual "Happy Face" Christmas Party, sponsored by the Fluv. Christian Ser. So., for designated residence by the Fluv. Social Services Dept., is scheduled for Sat. Dec. 3. Our church members are ask to participate in the following ways:

- Purchase a $20 gift voucher for a child or senior adult. Make checks to FCSS, see Hilda or Jay, our church has 12 vouchers.
- Bake 2 dozen cookies, place in a zip lock bag and leave in the church kitchen by Nov. 27.
- Donate good, clean gently used or new toys, limit stuffed animals, footballs, basketballs, etc. are suggested, a box is in the fellowship hall until Nov. 20th.

Birth to 12 years are included in "Happy Face". Approximately 300 children will participate.

LIVE NATIVITY

Our church, with the help of the Fluvanna Farm Bureau and others in the community, plans to have a "Live Nativity" on the lawn of our church Friday and Saturday evenings, Dec. 9 and 10, 6:30-8:00 pm. Please call Tee at the church office if you would be willing to help. We need a shelter, lights, sound, refreshments, children, youth and grownups—all kinds of help. We will be building the stable on Saturday, Dec. 3 at 9:00 AM. Bring any lumber, nails, ideas, and help get this built. Talk to Paul Beyer, Corven Flynn and Tom Gable and they will tell you what is needed. Volunteers are needed to be the characters of the nativity; see Koky if you are willing--grown-ups, too. Let's make this a meaningful experience for our church!

CHANGE IN "HAND OF FELLOWSHIP"

We are making a few slight changes to our "Hand of Fellowship" time on Sunday mornings prior to worship. We think it is important to continue to greet one another, especially our visitors, but in order to minimize confusion and noise and save time, we ask that you greet only those immediately around where you are sitting. Those on the end of pews and ushers, make sure you greet the visitors nearest you and give them a visitor's card and church brochure. Make sure that everyone is welcomed in love, in the name of Christ.
